Foreword - Miracle is "Heaven on Earth"

The true secret to Miracle lies hidden within the sacred geometry...

“With Miracle, we have added all of the steps from our other iQubes. This time though, we were able to complete what has taken me a lifetime to produce: Triple Nesting Scalar Vortex Miracoils...

We finally succeeded in creating one scalar vortex pump inside another scalar vortex pump, within another scalar vortex pump. The complex counter-rotational cancellation fields generated from this nesting of three scalar vortexes, create zero point energy.

This sacred geometry design is extremely complicated. Over the years I suffered many failures, but finally we made a major breakthrough.

The triple nesting design is a perfect example of the Divine Sciences, since Miracle uses the Law of Three.

I'm in awe of what it's capable of doing. I have no words to describe this gift to humanity.”

Introduction

Unlike other simple binaural frequency technologies, all our technology employs an optimal synergy of scalar energy fields, sound frequencies, noble gases, flower and gemstone essences, in addition to your own unique voice frequencies.

However, our Miracle iQube alone is uniquely designed with the sacred geometry of triple nesting the coils.

Miracle represents a qualitative, rather than a quantitative shift, in how our already powerful scalar energy tools work. And this, as you'll discover in reading this Handbook, is a difference which truly makes a difference.

Miracle offers us a quantum leap forward... Both in our understanding of the underlying quantum physics... and in the profound results it offers to all of us, who are searching for ways to easily manifest:

✓ Awakening our dormant potential... ✓ Stepping into our brilliance... ✓ Clearing and transforming our environment into a higher vibration... ✓ Finding and living our deeper Purpose, within joy...

In short, co-creating Heaven on Earth.

You'll be able to read about some of our Miracle owners' transformative experiences with all of the above, later in this book...

For those who are just curious to see what this Miracle iQube is all about, we congratulate you for your curiosity, and we welcome your feedback and questions.

Just contemplating the Miracle will begin to create a bridge of quantum field energy.

And if you're interested in more information about our technology in general, and want to listen to some of the frequencies, we'll be sharing a link to our free tele-seminar series, later in this Handbook.

Our mission at Quantum Sound Therapy is to support the journey of humanity back into more enlightened states of consciousness. And we hope that, since you've been drawn to download this book, you're among those who are also looking for this in your own life. We hope you're inspired by the information we're sharing here about Miracle, to choose to travel with us too.

For those who have purchased your Miracle: Congratulations. You've just made a life altering, brilliant decision, by inviting your Miracle into your life... In a few days you'll begin to realize just how impactful this decision was. It's a decision of deep self-love.

Your life is about to change in some pretty amazing ways (although how that will unfold will be, of course, unique to you on your life journey).

We invite you to share your stories about these shifts with us – we love to hear from our Tribe!
But before that can happen, we need to get your Miracle up and running, and to answer any questions you may have.

We've put this guidebook together for you, to provide you with all the basic information, to answer some frequently asked questions, and to give you some cool tips about how to use your Miracle most creatively and most usefully... to bring you into greater personal balance and wellness.

In addition to sharing in this Guidebook about all the frequencies which come with the Miracle iQube, we'll also be describing some of the amazing quantum science behind our technology, placing how these iQubes assist us within a larger context of greater understanding.

What Can You Expect, Living With Your Miracle?

1. An enhanced ability to focus on solving your life's challenges;
2. Increased awareness and intelligence;
3. You will enter into profound gamma states where you will effortlessly solve your problems and become one of the peak performers that you dream of;
4. Have deeper, effortless meditation;
5. Deeper rest and well-being...
6. You will look younger, feel younger and bounce back from stress more quickly.
7. Equanimity and equipoise will become your constant companions.
8. You will finally learn how to solve some of your deep internal blocks and problems yourself, so you will have a reduced need to shop... or spend money eternally on seminars, workshops and courses (which don't really solve your problem, but leave you on the emotional roller coaster ride of endless seeking outside yourself to find the answer)...
9. You will finally realize that the answer lies within you - if you would only look there.
10. You might even feel happy or blissful for hours each day - for no reason. Just happy and content that your brain is working correctly.
11. You will listen to inner guidance and intuition without fear or doubt.
12. Your doubts, fears, anxieties and blocks will be decreased.
13. You will attract whatever you need into your life more effortlessly.

Remember to: Unwind the old stress-story... Unmemorize the myth (of limitations for you)...
Return to the still-point... Breathe.....

Triple nesting accelerates and activates your manifestation power by making the environment more coherent, powerful and stable. This is the field of pure consciousness.

As you clear your old and contradictory subconscious patterns of thinking and feeling, you will be free to manifest more quickly and easily.

We hope you enjoy the amazing journey you're about to begin, in connecting with your Miracle.

Let the Journey begin!!

Chapter 1 – The Miracle Story: An Unexpected Discovery

Although many of our technologies use more than one coil, the idea of nesting more than one coil one inside another coil came about serendipitously, as one of our consciousness architects (who works in our shop) was playing around with a couple of old coils, he decided to try putting one inside the other, to see what would happen... and the impact was immediately apparent to all of us.

Out of that first experiment with 2 nested coils (which became our Awaken iQube), and knowing the power of the Law of Three, we were then inspired to create an iQube with three coils, one nested in another, nested in yet another. And thus was Miracle born.

What a profound discovery it's been. We've been blown away by the results we've experienced, and which have been reported by others.

“[This is] the only technology that is teaching the quantum brain to function.”

Dr. Octavio Pino, Neuroscientist

Chapter 2 – How to Use Your Miracle iQube for Self-Healing

“A week after the Miracle iQube came into our lives, I was challenged to my core with a deep realization that it’s time for me to let of the old building blocks of my ego. At first this deep self-realization concerned me, but as I surrendered to the experience of letting myself “fall apart”, I felt a deep calm. I was asked to live my life in a state of love / connection / oneness with myself (past present and future) and others in my life. I’m not sure what this new definition of self really means but the sense is that this is how we humans are intended to live. It’s becoming harder and harder to see the separation between myself and others. I meet people and instantly love them, no boundaries and no barriers. I just feel that they are me, and I am them. Wow, quite a ride..... Awesome...”

Bill Little, Toronto, Canada, Clearly Conscious Energetics

Are you searching for a scalar energy technology which will unlock the secret to your highest potential, and rock your world?

One which will awaken your brilliance...

While also clearing and transforming your environment to a higher vibration...

Shifting you easily into the unified field of pure consciousness... which cracks the code to your Law of Attraction power, by dissipating your subconscious blocks...

Helping you finally find happiness and harmony in your life... All while you work, play and create in your home or office environment?

Ever Wonder Why the Law of Attraction Sometimes Just Doesn’t Work for Some Things...

In spite of how long you practice, how many books you read, or movies you watch? (We did).

Want to know the real secret, which limits your success in using the Law of Attraction within its fullest, infinite possibilities?

We uncovered the answer to this question... And the solution.

In two words, the problem is: subconscious and unconscious blocks (ok, four words).

And in one word, the solution is: Miracle.

Miracle has a very different geometry than any of our other iQubes. With its three scalar vortex Miracoils, nested each one inside the others like those Russian nested dolls, this powerful configuration works within the Law of Three... exponentially magnifying the effects of each of the three vortexes...

That results in penetration all the way into sub-atomic levels, into the levels of pure creation energy, into the unified field of creation.

In combination with:

- our specialized pre-programmed frequencies...
- along with retraining your brain to move more easily into alpha, theta and delta frequencies...
- and with the Golden 6 waveform... (all of which we'll explain to you in later chapters)...

Your subconscious and unconscious blocks, and old limitations are effortlessly dissipated. This combination finally makes manifesting within the Law of Attraction quite straightforward.

“Miracle encapsulates the most advanced level of what we’re capable of doing – because it takes the Law of Three to a level of completion that we haven’t been able to achieve before.

To be able to nest three vortexes, one inside another, inside another, is an incredible piece of geometry...

It is and does have the ability to work on the levels where deep change is possible, within pure consciousness, before manifestation takes place.

With Miracle, we have the ability, if you will, to drop a pebble in a pond, and make a ripple...

But we’re doing it at the source of Creation. And therefore, that ripple from that pebble will be seen over and over. It has no limits.”

Robert Lloy, Miracle creator

So our triple nested Miracle design transcends dimensional limitations... Moving you within effortless ease, into the field where the Law of Attraction (finally!) really works!

The Key Benefits to Having Miracle in Your Home

As you'll see, in reading this e-book on Miracle, after 40 years of dedicated research and many attempts, Miracle finally represents a major breakthrough in the next generation of coherent, scalar energy technology.

It turns out, it's all in the geometry: the field created by Miracle's triple nested vortexes cracks the code to your personal transformation while making your home a coherent sanctuary of good vibrations centered within the unified field of creation.

What this means for you:

1. This sacred geometry amplifies the power of the scalar wave vortex technology. This creates a powerful, coherent quantum field, within which you can now easily co-create. Within the coherent field of scalar energy, your Law of Attraction power is ramped up.

2. This triple nested scalar vortex acts as a powerful cleanser, detoxing you and your environment, while also imprinting beneficial, coherent frequency information in your brain, by accelerating the creation of new neural pathways.
3. Your Miracle IQ is increased... So you can improve both the quality of your relationships, and your co-creative abilities.
4. Miracle hacks your DNA and reality, creating a true transformation... Each cell in your body is imprinted at a deep level with higher frequencies... re-trained out of stress patterns, re-trained into deep relaxation, creativity and the inner peace of alpha, theta and gamma frequencies.
5. Activates your pineal, so you will begin to see, think and create more clearly, raising your frequency to a new octave. The decalcification of the pineal (opening your third eye) accelerates with Miracle, more than with any other iQube (except of course the Tesla iQube). This is due to the enhanced imprinting capabilities of the triple nested scalar vortex.
6. Miracle cleanse subconscious negative emotional patterns You know, the ones we're not even consciously aware of, which are creating 95 % of your reality (according to some neuroscientists). Cleared of their impact, you live in a vortex of freedom, clarity and self-empowerment which many call "zero point". New possibilities can then spontaneously appear in your life.

The Miracle reduces deep seated false beliefs, chronic fear, anxiety and sadness, while increasing your happiness and state of ease and enlightenment (Living in Flow).
7. Miracle imprints your food and beverages, raising the frequency in what you eat and drink: from being depleted to holding a higher vibration of energy.
8. Includes quantum sound therapy software, so you can use your voice to release subconscious blocks on a daily basis. This amplifies your Law of Attraction power and radically accelerates your transformation, especially when your tones are played through the triple nesting of Miracle.
9. Also if you're a healer, a group leader, or coach with a message, this technology will impact the group consciousness, creating a more cohesive tribe.

Miracle is an example of the Divine Sciences. Divinely inspired, it's based on mathematics, sacred geometry and quantum physics...

In particular, as you'll discover, triple nesting of three scalar coils accelerates and activates your manifestation power, by making the environment more coherent, powerful and stable.

As you clear your old and contradictory subconscious patterns of thinking and feeling, you'll be free to manifest more quickly... Step out of old and unhelpful habits and patterns... to shift into the field of limitless possibilities...

And it's as easy as turning on your Miracle.

How Much to Use Your Miracle

First then, and most importantly, we do recommend that for maximum benefit, you play your Miracle pre-programmed frequencies all the time – day and night.

Why? There are four important reasons...1. EMFs 2. Neuroplasticity 3. Retraining your brain 4. The psychic drill

Let's look at each of these, in more detail.

1. EMFs

Miracle builds a powerful, highly coherent scalar field of energy. One of the benefits of living within this scalar field is that it helps cancel out dissonant energies, such as those emitted by man-made technologies (like radio-masts, cell phone towers, satellite dishes...).

Maybe you're among those who've actively been looking for a solution like this, to counter the deleterious impact of EMFs on human health...

Or, perhaps you're like many people, and don't realize just how much pollution from dissonant frequencies of cell towers, radio masts, and satellite dishes we're all experiencing at this point... 24/7 and 365.

The research is only now beginning to catch up with the significant health concerns connected to EMFs - specifically to the man-made electromagnetic frequencies connected to modern-day communication technology... like those cell and radio masts, and satellite dishes... and cell phones.

(For more information about the scientific health concerns related to EMFs, the documentary, which can be seen on Youtube, "Resonance – Beings of Frequency" provides cutting edge research findings).

Bio-electro-magnetic researcher Dr. Roger Coghill states "We've immersed ourselves in an ocean of electromagnetic radiation. It's all around us now. Invisible, we can't see it, but we know it's there. Every time you lift up the mobile [cell] phone, you know it's there."

He adds that the former National Radiological Protection Board stated that over the past 50 years, radiation in our environment [from human-made technology] has increased many millions of times... [These EMFs] "completely swamp the Schumann Resonance waves [which are the natural Earth frequencies, to which our brains are attuned when in Alpha state frequencies] which we've had billions of years evolving with".

Dr. Erica Mallery-Blythe (emergency room doctor, who's studying and working with individuals with "electro-sensitivity") states that "At present, the World Health Organization statements regarding [EMFs] are that it is real, and symptoms can be severe and disabling”.

And children are even more susceptible than adults.

Did you know? Recent research on children shows that, compared with adults, microwave radiation (like from cell phones) is absorbed:

✓ twice as much into their brains, ✓ up to 3x as much into their brain’s hippocampus and hypothalamus ✓ and up to ten times as much into the bone marrow of their skulls

Cell phones are a powerful source of EMFs, given there are now 4 billion people on the planet owning them (compared to 25 years ago, when they were seen as a ‘gimmick’ and owned by very few people). As the numbers quickly grew, so has the electromagnetic infrastructure to support the increase...

Have you heard? ✓ More than 16 countries around the world, including Canada, Switzerland, France, Italy, Luxembourg, Austria, Poland, Bulgaria, Israel, Hungary, China, Russia, and Australia have now adopted policies which ban or limit the use of Wi-Fi in schools... ✓ These policies also specify guidelines advising precaution in the use of mobile/cell phones by children. ✓ As recently as July 2013, the Israeli government was ordered by the Supreme Court to investigate how many children in Israel were suffering from Electromagnetic Sensitivity (EHS). ✓ In 2007, after the Bioinitiative Report was released, the European Environmental Agency immediately called for a limitation of exposure to EMF radiation, from cell phone towers, cell phones and Wi-Fi. ✓ A ban on Wifi use in schools (with a recommendation of wired internet use instead) has been called for, by the Council of Europe. ✓ In 2011, the World Health Organization changed the danger rating of cell phones, reclassifying them as possibly carcinogenic to humans.

No longer mere conjecture, the health risks from cell phones and cell towers has now been long recognized by major governmental bodies around the world.

One of the disrupted functions created by EMFs from cell phones, happens in the pineal gland’s production of melatonin.

Melatonin is the body’s main defense against the free radicals which are created as a by-product of cell mitosis (in other words, free radicals are a byproduct of our body’s work during deep sleep, with repairing old and damaged cells by creating new ones).

Studies in free radicals have suggested that free radicals contribute to every disease, as well as aging, in the body. Melatonin protects against free radical damage...

But recent research has found that EMFs disrupt our melatonin production at every step.

We share this information because we believe that what Prof. Denis Henshaw (of Bristol U.) said is true about EMFs – “It’s very hard to turn the clock back, if not impossible to turn the clock back. But we need to be aware of the adverse health effects, so that we have the choice of taking precautions against the exposure.”

Remember, Miracle is a powerful precautionary tool. The coherence created by the scalar field helps dissipate and cancel the effects of the dissonant frequencies, including EMFs, around you.

Scalarwave technology generates a coherent field. There is clinical evidence that it may reduce the impact of radiation/EMFs, because coherence creates a stronger field than dissonance.

This is evidence of the Cancellation Effect. It’s why people feel so much better within a coherent field – the coherence of a scalar field cancels and reduces many kinds of negative influences, including EMFs.

Imagine stepping into an oasis, from a raging desert storm of dissonant environmental energies, including EMFs... We designed the Miracle’s vortex, within the scalar field created by Miracle’s unique sacred geometry... along with the specific frequencies (all of which we’ll be talking about in more detail, in later chapters), all to reduce the deleterious impact of damaging EMFs.

And that’s very evident to people, with feedback from our Tribe reflecting this...

“I loaned my iQube to a friend for a week, given she was moving through some huge challenges on many fronts. And I noticed such a difference in my emotional reactivity - with changes in my thinking (less clearly), and feeling more scattered. I could feel the impact of all the dissonant EMFs and other negative energies around me, much more powerfully.

As soon as I got it back and turned it on, I felt so much calmer and clearer again. The negative discordant energies just seemed to get canceled right out. Now I feel like I’m back in my own beautiful sanctuary again. Wooo hooo!” Deb, ON, Canada

So, that’s powerful reason #1, for keeping your Miracle on, 24/7. And reason # 2 is also quite compelling...

2. Neuroplasticity

Traditionally, science used to think the human brain was hard-wired and able to grow only during infancy and childhood.

Then, in the mid to late 20th century, some research began to notice that the brain was still growing during adolescence. So the prevailing wisdom then expanded to include hard-wiring into the mid-twenties.

More recently still, with further advances in neuroscience, and more advanced tools for measuring change in the brain, it’s been clearly demonstrated that the human brain is in fact, neuroplastic - capable of growing throughout the lifespan, right up until the moment of death.

There’ve been some amazing pioneers exploring neuroplasticity, who really needed to persevere. For them, it’s been like swimming upstream against the prevailing current, to challenge limitations in the scientific paradigm.

For example, some scientists have discovered ways for those who are blind due to optic nerve damage, to learn to see again. Others have helped those with significant learning disabilities to actually overcome them (rather than just accommodating to them), by training other parts of their brain to take on those learning tasks. Some people who've lived in agony from phantom limb pain, have re-trained their brains to feel no more pain in the missing limb.

These may seem like miracles (and they are!). And if the brain were not neuroplastic, these results would be impossible to achieve.

Among these visionaries, exploring the realms of what's possible within neuroplasticity, is Robert Lloy, creator of the Miracle. He's not a scientist in the usual sense of the word, given he doesn't possess scientific credentials. Rather, he's a Tesla-like inspired inventor, who gets information in his dreams. He just goes to sleep and sees it in pictures. And then he follows through and builds it, according to what he dreamed.

With this specific gift, along with his passion for helping humanity evolve into greater states of expanded consciousness, he's been able to develop stationary iQubes such as the Miracle.

Miracle utilizes the brain's neuroplastic capacity to grow and change in extremely precise ways, by utilizing complex mathematical algorithms, quantum physics and highly specific sound frequencies.

By creating a scalar field of highly coherent (organized) energy, which aligns with the brain's neuroplasticity, Miracle generates the optimal environment for growing and creating change easily...even for changing old and ingrained stress-habits which otherwise seem quite challenging to shift.

3. Retraining Your Brain

Within this beautiful scalar field, which provides you with the optimal environment for growing and making changes easily... Miracle also offers you pre-programmed frequencies which support your own soul's conscious evolution - to liberate your spirit by lighting up your brain.

When played within the sacred scalar field of the Miracle's triple-nested vortex, these frequencies have been specifically designed to support retraining your brain – away from stress and fear/anxiety... and into more expanded states of consciousness, into living within your greater potential...

And, rather than just visiting, learning to live there... 24/7 and 365.

This means, the more you listen to these pre-programmed frequencies, the faster you're allowing Miracle to retrain your brain, into greater pleasure, joy, relaxation, creativity and love. Change your brain, change your life.

We've made this as easy as possible for you... It's "plug and play", so you just go about your daily life, surrounded by the scalar field that's retraining your brain, day and night!

4. Miracle Actually Works Like a Frequency-Based, Laser-Focused Psychic Drill.

Our revolutionary voice assessment system (which is optional when purchasing your Miracle – and more about this in a coming chapter), when played through your Miracle, drills down on search-and-find missions. Your Miracle helps find your stress hot-spots, while also helping you develop new neural circuitry in the areas of your brain associated with greater pleasure, joy, relaxation and creativity. This combination then releases ancient stress, which you've long held onto.

Like an evolutionary human reset button, Miracle powerfully moves you out of sympathetic fight-or-flight reactivity (with all the damaging adrenaline rushes and cortisol flooding, which keep getting triggered in modern day living)... and into parasympathetic calm and profound relaxation.

This is the qualitative shift in our brains and bodies, which parallels the transformational shift that's happening on a planetary level, subsequent to 2012.

Here's the truth of real rejuvenation at work: Miracle begins to create actual change in the brain, while also working with all your subtle bodies, to rejuvenate you every single day.

And you don't need to "do" anything to receive this "evolutionary re-set", no workshops to attend, no books to read, no gurus to find and follow.

All you need to do is listen. Just turn on and then listen daily to your Miracle pre-programmed frequencies, and to your own individualized balancing frequencies (which are generated by analyzing your personal voice). Simple, right?

Chapter 3 – How We Cracked the Code to Your Law of Attraction Power... The Research Behind the Miracle

Your Brain's Different Brainwave Frequencies... and How They're Connected to Your State of Consciousness...

Did You Know? Your brain is creating millions of new neural connections every second of your life.

It's a mind shifting research based statistic, and one that demonstrates the extraordinary flexibility and incredible genius potential that lies hidden within you right now.

And you don't even need to figure out how to access your potential, your brilliance – just let your Miracle do all the heavy lifting for you.

Proven Benefits Associated With Retraining Your Brain with Alpha, Theta and Delta Brainwaves

These brainwave patterns, which Miracle utilizes to retrain your brain, provide a link between the conscious and the subconscious minds, where there's then increased access to unconscious potential while remaining in a conscious state of mind.

- ✓ This access allows you access to peak performance and "in-the-zone" states.
- ✓ Alpha/theta brain waves are also very useful for re-patterning negative imagery, and inner self talk. In this way they're an exceptional aid to your transformation...
- ✓ Relaxation is excellent for the health of the mind and body. And Alpha/Theta brain waves are linked to both profound relaxation and Zen-like meditation.
- ✓ Numerous scientific studies have proven that meditation is associated with the release of uplifting, state-changing brain chemicals (such as serotonin, the brain happiness chemical).
- ✓ These neuro-chemicals provide many benefits, including harmonized emotional states, increased healing, enhanced problem solving ability (by reducing the effect of excessive beta brain wave stimulation); increased creativity, positive thinking, imagery and visualization.

Research has demonstrated many benefits of theta brain waves. Theta waves are typically produced during dreaming sleep as well as in deep trance states.

Over 3,000 scientific studies now support the benefits of the meditative states associated with the alpha and theta brainwave frequencies.

Modern studies have applied the use of high-tech see-what's-going-on-in-real-time instruments such as the digital EEG and fMRI to observe how meditation affects the human brain.

So, the ability to enter the theta brainwave state, where theta wave production predominates, is a valuable one.

Here are 20 More Benefits:

1. Improved “Super-Learning” abilities - The Theta state of “Super Learning” has been found to be the most powerful state for learning, to help you learn more easily and to retain information more effectively.

For this reason, experiencing theta brainwaves may be beneficial to students, and anybody else who needs to process large amounts of information.

2. Increased creativity - Theta brain waves are also produced in large amounts, during periods of intense creative thought.

This is true of those carry out traditionally creative work, such as musicians and artists, as well as anybody who is engaging in creative thinking.

3. Stress release - Theta brain waves are also linked with a lowering of physical and mental stress. You'll have experienced this for yourself already, in the form of the deep sense of relaxation that descends as you drift off to sleep (theta brainwave production increases during this time).

Stress can lead to many diseases, so it's obviously beneficial to be able to release it before it becomes a problem.

4. More energy - Many people who practice theta meditation regularly report an increased sense of energy afterwards.

Going into the theta state for several minutes or more is kind of like having a nap in terms of the energizing effect it has on your body and mind - but without that groggy feeling afterwards!

5. Subconscious communication - Each and every day, you receive subconscious programming from your environment that you may not be aware of. This information and processing cycles into your brain and has actually been found to have an influence on behavior.

The theta state is also associated with increased access to the subconscious mind. This makes it easier to reprogram the subconscious and release limiting beliefs that might be holding you back, as well as adopting more empowering new beliefs.

6. Better healing abilities - Experiencing theta brainwaves may also be able to help your body to stay healthy. We heal best when we're free of stress and are deeply relaxed, and the theta states are strongly linked with stress release and extremely deep relaxation.

7. The ability to have lucid dreams - Imagine being able to control your dreams - not only could you stop a nightmare in its tracks, but you could experience any scenario you desire! Theta meditation may be able to help you do just that, as lucid dreaming is also linked with the production of theta brainwaves.

And, of course, learning to enter the theta state consistently makes it easier to become lucid while dreaming.

8. The ability to have out-of-body experiences - Astral travel is another paranormal ability that's linked with theta brain wave production.

Learning to have out-of-body experiences at will is well worth the effort, as they give you the chance to explore beyond the mundane reality that most of us call 'life', and to experience a new sense of personal empowerment.

Being able to enter the theta state easily is a key part of learning to leave your body on demand.

9. The development of psychic powers - Various psychic abilities are also linked with theta wave production, including telepathy, remote viewing, clairvoyance and others.

If you want to start to tap into the true potential of your mind, learning to enter the theta state is the best place to start.

10. Better memory - Theta brainwaves are associated with the ability to retrieve memories as well. This is particularly true of long-term memory, as the theta state is linked with greater access to the subconscious mind, which plays a key role in memory storage.

11. Clearing out undesirable habits and unwanted personality patterns thereby allowing you to develop both greater flexibility and intuition.

12. Improved recovery from depression and alcohol dependency – Psychologists Paul Kulkosky and Eugene Peniston’s research on alcoholics noted that the more time spent in the theta range, the more significant the recovery rate, with a reduction in terms of relapse. Participants experienced both a reduction in depression, and “a transformation of personality”.

13. The Power Of Delta Brain Wave Entrainment -

The neurosciences are beginning to discover that delta brain waves are the key to re-patterning and re-programming. This is usually accomplished during deep Delta sleep. The new proprietary amplifiers that we have integrated into the Miracle delivery system are able to reach delta (about 3 hertz). As a result of integrating 3 amplifiers with the Miracle Scalar Energy coils, we are able to repattern the deepest issues that are disrupting humanity. Our clinical research has shown and continues to show that some patterns are just dissolving during sleep. There is no work, and no conscious effort. For example, one highly productive man was suffering from a motorcycle accident and in great pain. He was self medicating this pain with alcohol. This addiction and dependency just dissolved while sleeping and living the field of Miracles. The causative factors just released. We are seeing increasing evidence that relief from anxiety and past traumas are possible while living in the quantum coherent field that is generated 24x7 by the Miracle iQube.

14. A reduction in mental fatigue has also been recounted. This one's fascinating – as our brains cycle in the theta range frequencies, researchers have also discovered a connection with the brain's ratio of potassium to sodium ratio.

This matters greatly, since having an imbalance in potassium-sodium means it's more challenging to learn, focus, think clearly, and to effectively solve problems.

15. Mystical, visionary peak experiences – (as researched at Indiana University)

Here's another wonderful benefit – How would you like to wake up your capacity for ecstatic, or mystical, oceanic experiences, within deep relaxation?

Researchers have reported an increase in “the timeless, oceanic mode of the mystical experience” while in theta and gamma.

16. Activates your Relaxation Response (as researched by Dr. Herbert Benson, at Harvard)
Instead of living in survival mode, with the ongoing triggering of stress created by chronic activation of the fight-flight response (with a flooding of cortisol).

17. Alpha/theta brainwave patterns provide a link between the conscious and the subconscious minds, where there's then increased access to unconscious potential, while remaining in a conscious state of mind.

18. Alpha/theta brain waves are very useful for re-patterning negative imagery and inner self talk. In this way they're an excellent aid to transformation...

19. Relaxation is excellent for the health of the mind and body. And Alpha/Theta brain waves are linked to both profound relaxation and Zen-like meditation.

20. Numerous scientific studies have proven that meditation is associated with the release of uplifting, state-changing brain chemicals (such as serotonin, the brain happiness chemical).

These neuro-chemicals provide many benefits, including harmonized emotional states, increased healing, enhanced problem solving ability (by reducing the effect of excessive beta brain wave stimulation); increased creativity, positive thinking, imagery and visualization.

Miracle delivers our specific pre-programmed frequencies, which we'll be looking at next, within the range of Hertz which triggers your brain to go into the Alpha and Theta frequencies. You get all the benefits of being in Alpha and Theta, while also receiving the focused benefits of each specific track.

And because we created Miracle to be a plug-and-play, your brain is being re-trained to these states 24/7 and 365.

This in itself is a significant game-changer, since most of us otherwise spend most of our time in the Beta frequencies.

Beta Brainwaves... Too Much of a Good Thing Isn't Good! While some time in Beta can be useful (since it helps us focus and concentrate), too much time in Beta has been found to produce many of the problems associated with our modern "life in the busy lane" lifestyle – anxiety, feeling on edge, and difficulty slowing down even when we want to.

Beta, for many, has become like a light switch that gets stuck in the "on" position – our brains don't get to rest in the deeper states of alpha, theta and delta.

Miracle re-trains your brain to rest, rejuvenate, and to relax. And as a result, your experience of life becomes filled with new experiences of deep relaxation, a sense of joy in living, profound insights and sharpened intuition, amazing creativity and problem- solving, and improved resilience...

Life just feels easier and more enjoyable. So it's easier to connect with your own inner wisdom, and your own life purpose.

Noble Gases We use a combination of 5 noble gases, all of which are found on the periodic table of elements.

Why? Because some say they each have different metaphysical properties which also facilitate an expansion in human consciousness.

The noble gases (argon, helium, neon, krypton and xenon) all interact within the scalar field, intensifying the zero point field.

And that means greater support for you, in moving you into more expanded states of consciousness more readily.

With the combination of scalar vortexing, noble gases, and brainwaves, this in itself is a powerful brain re-training tool – as evidenced by many of our Miracle owners, who continue to share their transformational stories with us (more on this, in a later chapter).

But our journey took us even further still... Into creating a waveform to deliver our brainwave frequencies that's both utterly unique on the planet, while also really ramping up the power for your brain to create change, at an unprecedented rate.

Up until now, it's taken monks, yogis, and spiritual Masters many hours of disciplined, daily practice for many decades, to reach and then maintain their state of consciousness within Theta, Delta and Gamma.

With our breakthrough Golden Six waveform, this now becomes simple for you to accomplish, with effortless ease, at a push of the button.

What makes our sound therapy unique...

Introducing Our Golden Six Waveform

Our Golden Six waveform was developed by a brilliant programmer, who designed it from lengthy studying of the neuroscience journals at Stanford U.

This is a unique, breakthrough technology, which isn't found anywhere else on the planet.

Even after it was developed, it then took Robert Lloy over 12 years to take this genius piece of programming, and find a way to create the Golden Six waveform from it. It's both complex, and incredibly powerful.

Using a brilliant mathematical algorithm, based on a deep understanding of quantum physics, the Golden Six maximizes the healing impact of Miracle's scalar field for you.

Robert Lloy shares about the significance of the Golden 6...

"The Golden 6 waveform is the perfect carrier for the sacred geometry in our Miracle's triple nested coils. It constructs a complicated interference pattern, which maximizes the creation of new neural pathways.

In traditional binaural beat technology, they create audio tracks with binaural beats, by simplistically beating two frequencies together, creating a shift which can occur on a minor scale.

With the Golden 6 waveform, we finally discovered how to beat six beats together. In other words, instead of two beats, we're actually producing six of them. This creates an interference pattern of dynamic shifting into four dimensional space (the three spatial dimensions plus time).

And then those six also go through a phasing equation. This results in your brain experiencing new phenomena such as phantom sounds and tones, within the silence between the different audio frequencies being played... indicating an actual expansion of dendrites in the brain...

In other words, you can actually hear your brain growing new neural pathways... And this phenomena also indicates an increase in your consciousness.

It's an incredible, truly incredible piece of code".

"Not Just Another Pretty Face" Designed to open up new neural pathways, the ultimate goal of the Golden Six waveform is to help humanity evolve, rather than to continue the downward spiral of humanity (as reflected in the calcification of the pineal gland).

There are so many tools on the planet, which are based on consolation – on trying to help people feel better about the stress we all experience, by providing comfort and support. We liken this to putting a band-aid on a wound. We all need consolation.

But more profoundly, what we all really need is to clear out what's causing the stress we all experience (which underlies the need for consolation).

These Quantum Sound healing tools also make us feel better – but they primarily do this by clarifying what finally moves us back into our evolutionary growth again... by focusing on actually developing new neuro pathways, thereby increasing neuroplasticity, while clearing and releasing the stress in the process.

So, rather than just applying a band-aid, Miracle focuses on helping:

1) Find precisely what's creating your personal stress/imbalance, by assessing stress in your voice (see next Chapter for more details); 2) Create both a scalar field of coherent energy and a vortex... 3) Which suck the imbalanced energy out of your field, and clear that out... 4) While helping protect you from the dissonant, damaging effects of EMFs all around you... 5) And re-training your brain into expanded states of consciousness, associated with relaxation and inner peace.

Miracle's frequencies go beyond our physical 5 senses, into our subtle bodies, where they directly act as a psychic drill, de-armouring our usual defensive ways of trying to protect ourselves from further pain and suffering.

It's these defensive armouring strategies which we first created as young children, which now maintain and sustain the blocks which continue to limit our human potential.

The Golden Six waveform, within the coherent waves of Miracle's scalar field, drill directly through the armouring, working on a subtle level where the ego has no way of defending against it.

Because of this, you won't find these frequencies sounding like "pretty new-age music".

Instead, with laser-like precision these are meticulously exact frequencies, based on highly complex mathematical algorithms and quantum physics. They speak directly to your brain, in language your brain understands... creating actual changes in your brain's circuitry.

The Golden 6 waveform focuses specifically on clearing your stress, and developing new neural pathways in your brain, which begins to support your maintaining and sustaining greater joy, relaxation and creativity... To help you evolve into new states of expanded consciousness.

And that's the transformative power of the Golden Six waveform. Taking advantage of the human brain's neuroplasticity, it creates real and lasting change: in your brain... and in your consciousness. It's an evolutionary game changer.

Sounds pretty good, right? It is! Lastly, let's take a look at...

The Importance of the Quantum Brain, and How Miracle Interacts With It

Most of us think of the human brain helping us function primarily in linear terms – first we do this, and then we do that... But that's just in the left hemisphere... the “linear processor” in the brain.

Meanwhile, the right hemisphere processes information quite differently – in parallel, and/or in circular fashion: this is the brain's quantum processor.

Dr. Octavio Pino, a highly esteemed neuroscientist, researcher and founder of Psycho Neuroenergetics, shares the following about the quantum brain and our Quantum Sound technology:

“How is the brain capable of downloading information that's around us, in the form of waves and frequencies? It's because we live in a world of information, light and energy.

The brain is not just the physical brain, the neurons, which you can dissect and observe. The brain goes beyond that, and interacts with the electromagnetic field around us... and in itself produces a field. The quantum brain exists as a hologram and has a vast field.

The area of the brain in the right hemisphere (which is capable of absorbing energy like an antenna) is actually more engaged when we're asleep and in meditation... so it's more receptive to programming – because it works at the quantum level, with the subatomic particles which are also waves.

The brain resonates with the iQube. The brain waves then become coherent with the waves emitted by the iQube, and one can actually create new neurological connections and learn new things.

The key to awakening your quantum brain lies in quantum physics and the quantum dynamic field. This technology effectively trains the quantum brain by learning within resonance, at the frequency that's being inputted.”

Dr. Pino states that the scalar energy in this quantum dynamic field resonates and trains your quantum brain, so that you're uplifted effortlessly into the field of pure consciousness while you work, play, rest or meditate in your home or office environment.

“This is the only technology in the world today that is teaching the quantum brain to function.”

Dr. Octavio Pino, Neuroscientist

Chapter 4 – Discover How Miracle is a R/Evolutionary 21'st Century Soundtrack Solution: To Effortlessly Transport You Out of Overwhelm, and Into a Fearless State of Loving Flow, 24/7 and 365

“I now believe that I will be able to live in a state of continual “love / oneness” in this lifetime. I feel so much more expansive. My conscious access to sense and feel the past, present and future and the oneness of all is also improving. When I used to “tune in” I would describe the feeling as I would kind of push the energy from my head outward to connect into my higher consciousness. Now, it feels like my higher consciousness is closer, easier to connect with. Or said another way, it's now easier to bring my higher state energy into me. Like my soul is gaining more direct access to me. I can feel my higher state consciousness almost at will now.”

Bill L., Toronto, Canada

The Specific Pre-Programmed Tracks in Miracle Miracle comes with 4 powerful tracks to help you awaken and elevate into the unified field..

Because the human brain's natural learning pattern has a learn-rest cycle, each of these four powerful retrain-your-brain frequencies are interspersed with our relaxation frequencies, giving a total of 7 tracks.

This give your brain both an opportunity to learn the new frequencies and then to rest, to allow your brain to consolidate what it's learned...

Here's what we created, in order to do this:

1. Theta Love frequencies – These beautiful frequencies contain:

✓ Heart opening frequencies – First, a reminder about where we're all growing from, and then within this, how these frequencies assist us...

Once we've experienced being wounded while standing in our essential Light, as infants/young children... and life on Planet Earth has continued to be suffused with trauma and multiple stressors... it can become much more challenging to keep our hearts open to love - to feeling safe enough to step into our Light, and to love with a wide open heart.

The matrix of fear and separation can be so powerful, so enticing. And yet, the times we are living in demand that we awaken to walking more consciously, to re-learn unconditional loving, and to heal – first ourselves, and thus to contribute to our human family's healing and evolutionary journey.

This heart opening frequency assists us in this journey from living in fear back into awakening into living in love. And, once this frequential shift is stabilized in our brains, in our Be-ing, our consciousness shifts too. We are open to living within our own Light, and seeing the world differently.

So, this is a frequency to open your heart, and bring you back to the still point within the heart resonance.

It can be used to help resolve communication and relationship disharmonies and conflict.

When your heart is opened, it's natural to perceive creative solutions to a conflict, and be able to communicate these effectively.

✓ All glands - In addition to opening the heart, at the center of the intent with Miracle is supporting the de-calcification of the glands...

“Unless blood flow can be increased and the glandular system stimulated, humankind's hope for better health and, more importantly, for spiritual liberation in the body is not possible. These systems must be brought back on-line.” Robert Lloy

These frequencies support glandular stimulation and health.

✓ Pineal activation -

The pineal gland is also called our 3rd eye. Along with all our other master glands, it's incredibly important to our human evolution.

However, some studies have shown that the pineal gland has been shrinking, and becoming calcified. That EMFs negatively affect pineal gland functioning...

And that working in front of a computer for long periods of time, also contributes to the shrinking of the pineal.

We feel passionate about the need to bring all the glands back online, including the beautiful pineal gland. This pineal activation track works at the level of sound frequencies, to support the reactivation and opening of your pineal.

✓ Focus frequencies for balance. These are designed to stimulate the frontal lobe and also provide grounding.

2. Chakra Octave Waves – Ocean waves provides an opportunity for your brain to “rest”, allowing for consolidation of the growth stimulated by the other tracks.

3. Schumann Resonance Frequencies – This is the natural frequency of the earth. And it's clearly, scientifically measurable as a “pulse” (some have called it the “heartbeat”) of the Earth.

When we're out of resonance with the Schumann frequency, we're out of connection with the Earth. All sorts of illnesses/health issues have been associated with this - including (according to research results) serious increases in anti-social behavior, mental disturbance, significant memory problems, neurological disturbances, and some psychosomatic conditions.

Nikola Tesla first discovered the Schumann Resonance in the late 1800's, but as in so many other areas, he was way ahead of his time. It took over 50 years for the next 'discovery' to occur, in 1952, by German physicist Professor W.O.Schumann. But the real significance of the Schumann resonance frequencies yet again took more time.

More recently, in 1979, a connection between the Schumann resonance and, in particular, the alpha range frequencies of human brainwaves, was also established by Herbert König (who was the successor of Dr. Schumann at Munich University)... suggesting that our human brains are naturally tuned into the relaxation rhythms of our planet. How amazing is that?

When the first Russian cosmonauts and astronauts experienced some significant health issues while out in space, Soviet scientists determined it was due to their no longer being exposed to the Earth's Schumann frequencies.

As a result, modern space-crafts now include some sort of device which reproduces the Schumann frequency. This allows cosmonauts to function at peak efficiency, even out in deep space... clearly identifying the importance of the Schumann resonance frequencies for human health.

In fact, another one of the wellness concerns about EMFs is that the pollution they create "completely swamps" the natural Schumann resonance frequencies. This track works to restore that resonance in your body, and in your environment.

4. Focus frequencies – These frequencies activate the frontal lobe for enhanced concentration. This can shift you quickly from an emotional state, to a state of clarity, concentration, intuition and productivity.

As it assists with focused attention, this track should be used when you are studying, working, or needing to resolve a problem or issue creatively.

We have some wonderful, creative tips in later chapters, to help you get the most out of listening to your new frequencies.

But before we go there, we just wanted to let you know about how you can also use Miracle to powerfully shift your own individual stress and release your old suffering-stories.

Chapter 5 – Voice Assessment: What’s in Your Voice is In Your Life: Find your Frequency & Use Your Own Voice to Heal Yourself – Using Your Personal Balancing Frequencies (For Real In-Time Sound Therapy, Available 24x7)

“I’ve been on a journey of awakening for some time now... When I first felt the resonance of Miracle, I was blown away by how much I resonated with and enjoyed the energy. I felt like I could breathe for the first time, allowing me to stay centred in who and what I truly am. One with everything that is!” Matthew Christodoulou, Canada

That’s already an awesome journey you’re embarking on, with Miracle’s pre-programmed frequencies...

The effects increase with time, as the new neural circuitry in the pleasure center of your brain gets better developed, and the new brain maps you’re developing have a chance to “thicken” and grow more “branches” (Just like a “happiness tree”, which starts off as a sapling, but over time developing new and more extensive branches, until it’s very well-developed in your brain).

However, when you purchase Miracle, you also receive our voice assessment software. This means you can use your Miracle to do your voice assessment sessions.

If you’re like most of us, you’ll be amazed at what your own voice contains... and how this space-age technology uses this information to effectively and easily help you clear out your stress, to step into greater relaxation.

What’s The Significance of The Human Voice? Each voice is a unique blend of frequencies. In fact there are no two voices on the planet which are exactly the same.

Plus, our human voice is more individualized than our human fingerprint, because the voice changes over time, depending on our stress level.

As such, it is an excellent gateway/doorway to assess the human energy field. Not only does our voice precisely reflect the stresses and anxieties from our past and present circumstances, it specifically reflects the exact energy blocks which may be sabotaging us.

By assessing these blockages or stresses correctly, we’re able to develop a set of frequencies which pinpoint and release that stress. The resultant balancing tones then are like a tuning fork to release your pent up blockages, memories and patterns of self sabotage.

In essence, Miracle’s software program assesses these blocks, and then creates the specific frequencies which vibrate them away!

How Does a Quantum Sound Session Work?

It's easy. We take a brief 10 to 15 second sample of your voice. This can happen either in person with your Miracle, or with one of our trained Quantum sound practitioners, or via our Cloud Sound Therapy program (online).

Using proprietary algorithms, an individualized set of frequencies is created to pinpoint and release stress that's being held in your subtle energy field. The accuracy of this program involves assessing over 1 1/2 billion bits of information from your voice.

The set of frequencies that's developed releases stress at the "quantum" level, when played through our Scalar Vortex Miracoil Technologies, like Miracle.

The following two pictures were taken with a GDV camera (a more advanced form of Kirlian photography)... The one on the left was taken just before the quantum sound assessment session – notice how out of alignment some of the chakras were.

The one on the right was taken 1/2 an hour subsequent to the first one, after the person had listened to their personalized frequencies through once. Look at how much more balanced the chakras are now, after only 1/2 an hour of listening!

These quantum balancing tones are like a tune-up of the personal symphony which is your voice. They create space for harmony at the deepest levels of your being, and initiate the release of stored emotional stress, hidden fears, sadness, and anxiety, held in the conscious, subconscious and unconscious levels of your being.

The personal freedom brought about by releasing stress at the quantum level gives rise to heightened awareness, increased intuition, more expansive creativity and a deeper alignment with your life purpose.

When you listen to the 24 minute balancing frequencies which have been generated, stress is then released at the "quantum" level, when played through Miracle.

We recommend you have your own individualized voice analysis done, either:

- ✓ Every few days,
- ✓ Or on a weekly basis,
- ✓ Whenever stressed,
- ✓ When you want to harmonize with a beloved (then you can create a couple voice assessment session),
 - ✓ When you want to harmonize with a group of people,
 - ✓ When you're using the Law of Attraction, by using affirmations.
- ✓ You can choose, when doing your own voice assessment, to either work with the vowel sounds, or with an affirmation of your choice (to accelerate your manifestation work).

Do You Need to Wait Until You're in a Good Mood, or in perfect health, to Do Your Voice Sample?

No, the voice assessment works whether you're happy, laughing, sad, upset, angry, or crying.

In each of these examples (and others we haven't mentioned), no matter what "mood" you're in when you do your voice assessment, our computerized program will scan your voice against a library of over one and a half billion possible sounds in the human voice...

And will, with laser-like accuracy, pinpoint the sounds which are either missing, or are most out of balance in your voice. Then a soundtrack of 24 minutes of frequencies is created, which will bring your own unique voice back into balance again.

Listening to your balancing frequencies will clear your stress, as you reclaim the frequencies which were out of balance due to stress. In the process, your personal harmony is restored.

We encourage you to do your voice assessment when you're feeling wonderful (it will capture that and reinforce it in your bodies, while retraining your brain into greater wellness), and when you're feeling stressed (it will clear that out and re-balance you).

When Do You Play Your Frequencies?

You can re-listen to your personalized frequencies as often as you wish.

So, whenever you're feeling upset, or stressed, or even just when you're going to sleep at night, you can play these unique-to-you frequencies - which have been specifically calibrated to your own individual needs for balance, and relief of stress.

"When I'm struggling with stress, or with settling into sleep at night,

I love playing my personal balancing frequencies – they always clear out the mind 'chatter', and allow me to surrender easily into deep relaxation."

Debs. ON. Canada

Your Personal Frequencies and Your Miracle Playing your individualized frequencies/tones through the scalar field of your Miracle tremendously magnifies the clearing and balancing power of your own tones... bringing you much more efficaciously into your "Zone" of personal power, focus, deep relaxation and inner creativity.

How to Use Your Personal Tones? There are options for how to use your individual tones... and both can be powerful! We encourage a daily combination of both, depending on your needs, and your other daily priorities...

1. Listen to your 24 minute balancing frequencies, for a powerfully, deeply relaxing meditation. (Personally, I love listening to mine when I'm going to sleep at night – it's rare that I'm still awake by the end of the 24 minutes!)

2. Feel free to also just listen to your own individual balancing frequencies as you go about your day (just not when you're driving a vehicle) – you can listen at home played through your Miracle...

3. Or via MP3 or smart phone, when you're shopping, working, exercising, house cleaning, going for a walk, reading a book, lying on a beach, commuting on public transportation – you name it...

As long as you're listening to your frequencies in the background of your usual daytime activities, they'll be assisting with bringing you into greater balance, and de-stressing you.

We recommend, in the beginning, that listening once or twice a day to your own personal frequencies is a wonderful habit to build.

And the rest of the time, your pre-programmed frequencies are a fantastic support to helping you reach, and learn to maintain, living within an expanded, relaxed and joyful consciousness.

Chapter 6 – Time to Heal Your Story... Brain wave Training: The Mystery of your Neuroplasticity

“The Miracle iQube supports the energy that is already inside of us, like a boost and acceleration that gives us the opportunity to most importantly feel, recognize and remember what is already there. But also to embrace it and feel a state of peace, balance, clarity and neutrality, without effort and struggle.

We all have the power within to make a shift in our lives, and this technology can be an awesome catalyst and support for the shift you are looking to make. Thank you for this creation!”

Much love, Matthew Christodoulou, Canada

Storytellers and Meaning-Makers We’re all in this together. The human part of us – well, we’re all storytellers, meaning- makers and pattern-seekers. These features are built right into our consciousness, and into our brains.

From the time we’re tiny infants, and interacting with our adventures in this outer earthly world, as well as with others (moms, dads, siblings, relatives, friends teachers etc.), we’re always trying to make sense of this world we live in.

We try to understand why some stuff happens to us... and what that means about who we are in the world. We look for meaning, to help explain why some patterns keep happening.

And while some of these stories reflect back to us our gifts, and unique, wondrous qualities... some are much more painful than this.

Our Stress Stories, these unhappy/stressed out suffering-stories and limiting-beliefs about ourselves most often grew out of our very earliest experiences in life. And the timing of this actually creates a couple of very significant challenges for all of us, in trying to find our way into greater relaxation, and less fear/suffering.

These ancient stories about who-we-are and what we believe our limitations to be... all were initially created when we were tiny. By now, those early experiences have been over-developed and elaborated by ongoing life experiences.

1. But those initial stress-inducing experiences are now unconscious to us – we don’t even remember them anymore! Although they continue to inform and shape how we experience life... they’ve been with us so long they’ve become automatic reactions which happen below the level of our conscious awareness. That means it’s hard to see what’s actually causing our stress and emotional reactivity.

If you can’t see it/be aware of it... how can you fix it/let it go?

2. When we were tiny, and drawing conclusions about life and us in it... our brains weren't fully developed yet. So we all saw things in very black and white terms. These primitive beliefs can be incredibly robust. If they're causing us suffering, even if we want to let them go, it's really hard to do that, because...

We really believe them to be true about us, even though they're limiting... because they've been with us for so very long!

3. The human brain is plastic – The good news is, that means change is possible. But neuro-plasticity also has a dark side, embedded within neuro-plasticity ‘rules’...

Within the brain's neuroplasticity, “what fires together, wires together”.

For example, as a young child, if your parents yelled at you every time you ate with your hands, instead of your cutlery... your brain developed a neural map about that and every time you ate with your hands, and your parents yelled, that map grew a bit more circuitry.

But, at the same time, being yelled at (if you were a sensitive child) might have resulted in your concluding/developing a belief, or a story, about your being undeserving of being cared for lovingly, rather than harshly... or a story about eating being stressful, and to be avoided... or a story about big people being scary... and loving relationships feeling unsafe for you.

The variations on stress-stories and limited-beliefs are endless. We all have our own variations. What's common however, is that they tend to stick to us like Velcro, defining who we see ourselves being in the world.

This creates belief-boxes and limitations for us.

What Does This Have to Do With You, Your Frequencies, and Your Miracle? Well, until this technology came along, the best we could hope for, in clearing away our old and unconscious stories and beliefs which limit us, was for a good therapist and a long journey, trying to figure all this out...

And then trying to change what most often felt unchangeable. Even if we could figure out those unconsciously held beliefs, changing what feels fundamentally true, at a very basic, deep level, is not easy work.

Miracle Will Help You Clear Out Those Old Beliefs and Ancient Stress-Stories, Even if You're Not Consciously Aware of Them. Maybe you'll be finding that hard to believe right now. That's alright.

Sometimes the shift into believing can only happen experientially... So maybe for now, just allow some space for this possibility in your life... and watch and see what happens, as you continue to work with your Miracle frequencies...

How Does It Do That? All of the Miracle frequencies are designed to move you into deeper, more relaxed states of consciousness (alpha, theta, delta and gamma). When you're in these more relaxed states, change is easier – there's less resistance.

The scalar field created by Miracle is also very coherent, vibrationally. It supports and enhances more expanded states of consciousness, using the principle of the "following effect" (see our FAQs in the Appendices for more on what this means).

Together, these create new opportunities for rewiring your brain into an expansion of what you've known, into greater balance. And, in the process, dissolving the stress created by those old stories.

This means, your brain's plasticity finally begins working for you, in developing new pathways based on relaxation and love, rather than on triggering old fearful suffering- and-stress patterns.

In order to move into a greater sense of our true potential, to release the bonds of our limited beliefs, we need to let go of our old pain-and-suffering stories...

Miracle actually works like a frequency-based, laser-focused psychic drill. It drills down on search-and-find missions, helping find your stress hot-spots, while also helping you develop new neural circuitry in the areas of your brain associated with greater pleasure, joy, relaxation and creativity. This combination also releases old stress.

And you don't need to "do" anything, except listen to your pre-programmed frequencies... and your own individualized balancing frequencies (which are generated by analyzing your personal voice – more on this in the previous chapter 4).

How easy is that?

Chapter 7 – The Gift of your “Unconscious” Resistance... (And Yes, Your Ego Will Hijack You & Stop Your Progress If You Let It... It’s Like a Selfish, Spoiled Child That Only Wants Its Own Way & Will Do Anything to Get It)

How can resistance be a gift? And how is this connected to your Miracle frequencies, and reaching those beautiful, expanded states of blissful consciousness?

These are both great questions. And we’re including this chapter because it’s really essential to understand this.

Why? Lots of times, when people first begin working with Miracle’s train-your-brain frequencies (and with any of our IQubes too, for that matter), we’ll hear feedback along these lines:

At first, people begin to experience an expansion in their consciousness - and they love it. (Who wouldn’t, right? It’s what we all want – to dump the stress of modern-day life, and be able to bask in deeply creative, joyous, relaxed and focused states of consciousness).

But then sometimes we’ll get a follow-up phone call, saying “It’s not working any more” (and they’re often tempted to go off, looking for something else – another-bright-and shiny consciousness tool...)

When we ask a bit more about their experiences, usually what they report is that their old stress-stories have returned. So, they conclude the Miracle isn’t “working” any more.

And they’ve missed the point of our frequencies and Miracle... by not understanding the gift of resistance, when working with our tools.

Because, sooner or later, Miracle is designed to do exactly that. It brings into your consciousness the layers of your old limiting beliefs and stress-stories, in order to clean them out, effortlessly on your part.

We liken this to having an old closet filled to overflowing with old boxes of junk – old feelings, old limitations, old fears, old beliefs about self and the world.

And we all want that closet cleared out, so we can reclaim our connection to the Light that we intrinsically are... to awakening our vast, untapped, brilliant potential.

However, the first pattern that’s frequently embedded in all of us, as an intrinsic part of living in separation or duality-consciousness, is... resistance. We’re just so used to habitually resisting change, that even our patterns of resistance are unconscious, unseen, and un-noticed by us.

And isn't this the biggest part of our human predicament – we want change, but we don't want to leave behind the comfort zone of our limited beliefs, thoughts, and habits to find it. We're so used to living small, inside the confines of our oldest stress-stories, that stepping into change can in itself create stress. And evoke resistance.

(Ever wonder if, as Harvard psychologists William James and Boris Sidis suggested, we only use only a small fraction of our mental potential... what could happen even if we even only doubled it?)

We Have No Way of Knowing What Our Divine Human Potential Really Is...

But it's quite clearly a lot more than we currently have, when we're still steeped in our old, saturated stories of suffering... And while we're unconsciously resisting upsetting the apple-cart, created by the disequilibrium of change.

What we've found is, Miracle's frequencies begin by clearing out some of the (metaphorically speaking) big boxes in our inner closet first – and people feel the relief and the additional space for an expansion of their consciousness.

Suddenly, there's a lot more space... and more room to breathe deeply again! This feels wonderful!

But then the process gets a bit more complicated. Because some of those smaller, older boxes left way in the back of the suffering-closet, well they feel like who we really are in the world... We hold them precious, even though they don't speak of our Light, and to our brilliant potential.

We've had those old boxes with us since before we can remember... So, not unexpectedly then, sometimes some resistance to letting them go comes up.

Letting them go feels like our sense of who we've always seen ourselves as being is shifting, disappearing...

No wonder then, that we experience resistance!!

Making Friends with Your Resistance

But can you see the incredible gift in this resistance? It's actually giving you an amazingly helpful message...

That you're now in the back of your closet, doing some really deep cleaning. And fear about letting it go is coming up... That fear triggers the protective resistance... (It's like digging in your heels, when something feels uncertain).

Don't Stop Now!!!

This is the opportunity you've been searching for – to let go of what's really old, no longer serves your highest and best... and can be released easily, if you just keep working with your Miracle!!

When what you're releasing feels big enough to trigger anxiety and resistance to letting it go, here's what we've found on the "other side" of letting it go...

It actually frees up a bunch of our psychic energy. Energy which was being used to hold that limiting belief in place...

- Whether we've been unconscious of it (but it's still continued to inform and shape our life-views)...
- Or whether we've used denial, resistance, minimizing, avoiding, addictive patterns (like eating, drinking, drugs, shopping, exercise, gambling or any of the other ways we've tried to fill up that inner empty hole, caused by holding onto this limiting belief about who we are in the world)...

When we surrender to releasing that ancient limiting thought or belief... guess what happens? All the energy which went into maintaining that pattern, that story... is now released.

You get to reclaim a lot of your psychic energy. It feels awesome!

But in order to get to awesome, you first have to let go of that limiting belief. This means needing to find a way to work with, rather than against, your resistance - by seeing it as the helpful friend it truly is.

What to Do When You Feel Resistant – Do It Now

The biggest gift you can give yourself, to accelerate your own evolutionary journey, is to consciously take advantage of these moments of resistance.

Remember, your Miracle will drill down to find and shake loose a limiting belief from your unconscious. You may experience the discomfort of this through some resistance.

If you think of our human consciousness as an iceberg, where most of it is hidden underwater (in our sub and unconscious), then frequencies of the Miracle and your voice assessment become like a psychic drill that drills down into those depths, releasing old stressors you may not even be consciously aware of carrying.

That resistance you feel is letting you know that the drilling is shaking something loose – a chunk that will float up to be released.

You can use your discomfort or resistance as an opportunity to consciously shift... ... even if you have no conscious memory of what you're shifting

So, for those with a Miracle, we suggest holding the (optional) handheld Miracoil, or touching the iQube... and using your intent to connect with the scalar field.

Keep thinking your old resistant thoughts... (if you're aware of them – if not, just stay in your “discomfort zone” – it won't take long).

Now watch what happens – just watch, from a place of loving-but-neutral observer stance.

If you need extra support, rather than getting dragged into the fray of trying to do battle with your resistance, you can softly say to yourself... “Let it go, let it go...” Or, “Unwind the story”... And just keep watching to see what happens.

Eventually (and usually quite quickly), the feeling or thought cycles into completion and dissipates. Once it's gone, it's cleared.

And That's the Gift

Your Miracle will bring old emotional and mental “junk,” old hurts, old woundings, to the surface of your consciousness, in order for them to get cleared.

That doesn't mean your Miracle isn't working!

It does mean it's doing what it's intended to do – to effectively and powerfully “clear out your closet” of old stress and limitations...

All you need to do is to listen to the frequencies, and bear loving witness. Allow whatever it is to cycle into completion... and then it's gone. This will leave more space for you to live within greater bliss and joy.

So when you feel resistance coming up in you, hopefully now you'll turn to your Miracle... and do your Happy Dance!

It's a good sign your Miracle is working as intended... Indicating that an important releasing is in the works.

Chapter 8 – Your Quantum Leap... How to Get the Biggest Breakthrough From Your Miracle

“Miracle supports the energy that is already inside of us, like a boost and acceleration that gives us the opportunity to most importantly feel, recognize and remember what is already there. But also to embrace it and feel a state of peace, balance, clarity and neutrality, without effort and struggle.”

Matthew Christodoulou, Canada

Taking Out the Recycling – Composting Old Stress Stories Sometimes it helps to see a life challenge from a different viewing point... instead of just from where we feel stuck. (Remember Albert Einstein’s quote - "No problem can be solved from the same level of consciousness that created it"?).

Bill Little, who’s been working with the IQube technology consistently for over six years now (and is a huge cheerleader, given all the utterly transformative changes he’s experienced in his own life, with this technology) has a great way of explaining clearing out our old limiting stories...

He likens it to taking out the recycling. When it’s our physical garbage that we’re recycling, we don’t stop to go through every single piece of it on the way to the curb. We just let it all go. It served its purpose, but we’re done with it now. It’s time to recycle it.

Well, that’s what we need to do with our stress-stories too – just let them go.

We don’t need to examine each one carefully, to decide whether we want to compost it or to keep it. If it’s coming up for clearing, and it holds us back somehow from our fullest expression of who we really are, we can compost it.

And just because it feels like its true/reality (because we’ve been carrying it for so long) doesn’t mean it is reality. If it feels painful, or limiting of our Light potential, we can let it go.

So again, if you’re listening to your balancing frequencies, and a limitation or piece of your suffering past comes up, we encourage you to just let it go – gently and supportively reminding yourself: “Let it go, let it go”... or, “Unwind the story”... And watch to see what happens.

Our oldest suffering-stories and limiting-beliefs can feel stubbornly ‘ours’ - like they intimately belong to us, and we to them... but they too are just stories which can be released.

This releasing creates space for greater connection with our Light, with our joy and our deep relaxation; with our love and sense of interconnectedness with all life.

Left Hand, Right Hand This is an awesome tip about Miracle's (optional) hand-held Miracoil. Holding the hand-held unit in your left and right hands can have some energetic differences you may notice.

When you hold it in your left hand, it's the side often associated with the feminine, with turning inward... So, you are connecting with calling the energy of Miracle's field/vortex into you, connecting with your own inner essence, your strength and your Light.

It's like taking an in-breath, and watching what happens. This can feel wonderful if you're having one of those wobbly moments, and you want to feel strengthened, more centered, more grounded in your Light.

Alternatively, you can hold it in your right hand. The right side of your body is associated with the masculine, with the expansive energy of taking action, or with releasing something out into the world.

So, if you're feeling a negative emotion, or having a negative thought about yourself or someone else, if you're struggling with:

- comparisons,
- blaming,
- shaming,
- doubting,
- criticising,
- feeling angry,
- envious,
- resentful,
- victimized,
- or any of the other seemingly endless variations of negativity...

Then you can hold Miracle's hand-held Miracoil in your right hand, and allow whatever it is, to release from your energy field.

We suggest you play with this, with your hand-held Miracoil. Sometimes you may intuit it would be helpful to first hold it in your left hand, to first reconnect you to your own inner resources, your Light... and then hold it in your right hand, in order to let something go.

Or vice versa – maybe you want to release something (right hand) and then consolidate this with reconnecting to your inner Light (left hand).

Please feel free to share your experiences with us – we love hearing about our Miracle owners' experiences.

The Role of Understanding and Mental Analysis In many of our lives, among our iQube owners, we've noticed this very specific shift. For some of us it's been a profound shift.

Our evolutionary journey as humans has been fraught with disasters, challenges, obstacles, fearsome events, suffering, joy, beauty, inspiration and courage... along with various other experiences associated with humanity.

Sometimes, when the unexpected happens, the best we've been able to do has been to try to piece what happened into some kind of bigger context, into a story that tries to make sense out of what happened... To try to analyze, in order to understand...

However, when working with Miracle, analysis and understanding really take a backseat to just giving yourself permission to witness the journey you're on.

You don't need to try to understand it! Or to analyze. Just listen to your frequencies, and allow them to clear out what holds you back from standing in your greatest potential, in your Light!

Sometimes when you're clearing something out, what you'll find is that instead of first understanding something in order to try to clear it... you'll find that after you clear whatever it is, then you'll sometimes receive some inspiration or understanding about what you cleared out! Amazing (and effortless).

Still Feeling Like You're Traveling in the Dark, Waiting for That Light at the End of the Tunnel? Most times, from our collective experiences, the "dark stuff" from our individual and collective unconscious comes up from time to time. And Miracle and our frequencies clear it out, pretty quickly and efficiently.

But occasionally, we may experience a "dark night of the soul" part of our journey, where we're clearing something that's big for us. Under circumstances like this, it can feel a bit endless, as though we're peeling an onion one layer at a time (but it's taking a while to get to the center of that onion)!

What to do then?

Well, here are some don'ts... and some do's (all just suggestions for your consideration, of course).

Don'ts Please don't blame, shame, compare or chastise yourself for being where you are, and/or for the time it's taking to clear this...

If you're experiencing any of these stressful feelings, please do put on your own voice assessment frequencies... Hold your hand-held coil, if you have one, in your right hand, (or touch your Miracle with your right hand) and let that go!!

(Or, do another voice assessment session, to capture how you're feeling now... Sometimes when you feel like you've stopped moving forward, it's an indication of what you've already cleared, and that you're ready for a new voice assessment session).

Do's This can feel very tough for the human part of us, to feel stuck in the darkness – we're so used to stress and struggling. We so want to clear it or grow beyond it. It's hard to feel stuck where we don't want to be.

While Miracle and your balancing frequencies will do most of the heavy lifting, it still requires that you be prepared to do the journey... to bear conscious witness, from a place of neutral observing.

This is not the same thing as endlessly triggering re-living a stressful experience. With Miracle, you're neurologically clearing your emotional reactivity in your brain – building a new neural map where the stress actually gets neutralized.

Sometimes this bearing witness may be a conscious remembering of what's being released emotionally or mentally. But sometimes you may not feel you know what's being released – you just don't feel great.

Keep Going. You Will Get Through It.

On the other side of what you're releasing is a whole lot more space, and a lot of energy that used to be tied up in suppressing whatever just got released. That newly released energy is now available to you to use in more life-affirming ways.

Please do remind yourself that your willingness to clear out this human gunk, the stuff that blocks you from living in your highest potential, is an amazing gift to yourself and to humanity.

Sometimes, it takes real courage and commitment to step into reclaiming your personal connection to your Light, especially when this powerfully challenges seeing yourself defined by your old stories of suffering...

Please remember to honor your Light, and your journey...

18 Tips and Techniques Which Can Be Helpful, if you're feeling lost in the darkness.

1. Listen to the pre-programmed frequencies lots daily. Make sure you leave Miracle turned on 24/7! It will deeply accelerate what you're clearing.
2. Play your own individual balancing frequencies. And if it's been a while since you last did a voice assessment session, either do one yourself, or arrange one with Sound Therapy practitioner (if you feel you need some additional support).

Listen to them daily. Nothing (that we've found) will support you in powering through as thoroughly, as easily, and as quickly as listening to your own balancing frequencies!

3. Drink lots of structured water, especially when it's been programmed with your balancing frequencies. When you drink this, your cells are being flushed out and nourished at a cellular level with what balances you and brings you into greater awareness.

4. Take a salt bath – you can add some aromatherapy oil, and light a candle if you'd like... Relax.

5. Go for lots of walks in Nature. Recent research has discovered more than 120 compounds in the forest air which are helpful and healthy for humans... Getting out and connecting with our planet can boost your vitality.

6. Feed yourself high vibrational foods... Make sure you include some high quality fats – when your brain is developing new neural pathways, it needs high quality fats to use as building blocks.

7. Take a nap, or meditate, to regain some energy.

8. Remind yourself - all a feeling/experience wants is to feel fully felt/fully seen – to cycle into completion. And completion means the end of something old... And room for something new.

9. Do something creative – write, draw, dance, sing, rattle, drum your experience out of your body... shifting it from your inner experience, out into the world.

10. Try a fire intention ceremony: Light a fire, even if it's just a candle. Take a piece of paper. (Hold your Miracle's hand held coil, if you have one) and listen for the words or image of what you want to give away, all the negativity or limitations... write or draw until you feel complete and it's now all on the paper.

Next take a 2nd piece of paper, and write down what you want to reclaim in your life – what you're wanting more space for. Write or draw until it's complete.

Now take 3 to 5 really deep centering breaths...

Hold onto the handheld coil (if you have one) with your right hand (otherwise you can touch your Miracle with your right hand). Put the first paper with the old limitations on it into the flame. Say anything that needs to be said: you can thank what's on that 1st list that's no longer needed by you, for having danced with you, for whatever lessons you learned from it. You can speak to your willingness to surrender it now. Wait until it's burned completely.

Now, take a few more deep and cleansing breaths.

With the handheld coil, or touching your Miracle, with your left hand, now put the 2nd list to the fire too, sending out into the world your intentions for moving ahead, for inviting in whatever you wrote/drew on that 2nd paper. Again, speak aloud what needs to be spoken, what you're welcoming in.

Blow out the candle flame/put out the fire.

Pay attention now. Watch for what manifests in your life from this ceremony. What has shifted? What do you notice? Remember, the triple nesting geometry of Miracle makes any manifestation work extremely powerful.

11. Journaling your journey can be helpful in keeping the small (and not-so-small) shifts and changes within your conscious awareness. And/or...

12. Use the Quantum Sound Change checklist in Appendix I to keep track of what's shifting in you.

Have you ever noticed this? Once you clear a chunk of suffering, it's as though it's gone from your consciousness? Sometimes it's hard to even remember how tough it was, before you cleared it, and to notice the changes, even when they're happening all around you?

One way to pay attention to the progress you're making, with clearing old stories, and the impact on your life, is to use charting and scaling. This helps you more consciously recognize the transformation you're in the midst of living, with some clearly identified areas of your life that you're wanting to change.

You can scale each item on a scale of 1 – 10 (with one being none, and 10 being the most you can imagine). Where are you at now? Where do you want to be? Keep track of what number you're at, over time, and how that's showing up in your life.

You'll find a charting and scaling example we created, based on changes people experience with our iQubes (which other iQube owners have already noticed in their lives) – we've put it in Appendix II.

13. With Miracle - The fastest way to clear your "stuff" is through a vortex

It's so easy. The scalar field created by Miracle also creates a complex vortex of energy. And you can use your intention to interact with that vortex, increasing the energy into being activated within the quantum field.

In other words, you just send it through the vortex, and watch as it dissipates back into the quantum energy of creation. (With Miracle, of course, you're sending it through those three nested vortices).

When you want to further increase the vortex, hold your Miracle's handheld coil in one hand, and repeatedly move it in a figure 8 pattern. This will further activate and increase the energy of the vortex and the development of new neuronal pathways in your brain. It can also help open your heart chakra.

Some Miracle owners have reported working with this vortex has been extremely powerful for them (resulting for some in a temporary sense of dizziness, as their energies become attuned to the power in the vortex).

If you have one of the optional hand-held coils, and you're clearing old patterns or stress, here are some other ideas for you to try:

I. You can experiment with holding it in your left and your right hands, to use the figure 8.

II. Use horizontal figure 8's to consciously, intentionally, clear the energy.

III. And vertical figure 8's, with one end pointed towards the Earth, will accelerate de-charging your stress when you're clearing. This accelerates clearing the energy out of your field, in its transit back into the Earth.

IV. If you're a practitioner, or just demonstrating or sharing your Miracle with others, using the figure 8 with the hand-held coil will intensify the field, and help them experience the energy of Miracle more powerfully.

V. In addition to figure 8's, you can also use circles. Clockwise circles will send the energy out further, increasing the size of the scalar field.

Using counter-clockwise circles can help clear discord.

You can also use counter-clockwise circles, while holding it in your right hand with your knees slightly bent, with one end pointed towards your heart, to send the energy into your heart, opening your heart chakra.

VI. You can try rubbing the hand held coil back and forth between both your palms to dislodge something that feels "stuck" in you.

14. Intentionally fill up the cleared spaces with love. Sometimes it can be hard to remember this: it's easy to feel relief from pain, and to forget just how painful something was. We don't want to hold onto suffering. But remembering within consciousness to fill up the space [created by releasing the suffering] with love is good.

15. Practice an attitude of gratitude - for everything, including the areas of ongoing pain and suffering you're releasing in your life. It's all a part of your journey.

16. Find your joy, and spread it out in the world. David Hawkins, in his seminal work describing the levels of human consciousness and putting them on a scale, has put Love at the level of 500... and Joy at the level of 600.

Invest in your joy – it's good for you, and for the world! Your Miracle frequencies will help you uncover your joy.

17. "By ourselves we can make a difference... together, we can change the world!"

(Ian Sumner). When we really step into feeling the truth of our inter- connectedness, within the quantum unified field of Oneness... we also understand the truth of the power of small intentional groups, working together to transform our own lives, and life on planet Earth.

(Check our FAQs to understand how the Frequency Following Effect, The Ripple Effect of the quantum field, the Law of Intent, and the Law of Resonance all contribute to the power of working together with Miracle in small intentional groups).

If you don't have a Miracle yet, but want to work together with a small group of friends, you can get together and set a group healing intention. Listen together to one of the tele-seminars and then the guided visualization, while you all sink into the meditation. (See the Appendices for more details about the tele-seminars). Then share with each other about each of your experiences. It can be surprising to experience the synchronicities which many report, within the shared field of our frequencies.

With a Miracle – It doesn't get much better than this, for working with conscious, directed intent for your own healing, as well as the healing on the human collective level, and the healing of our planet.

Getting together with your friends, being in the sacred scalar field of Miracle, you can listen to these frequencies. You can collectively do some intentional healing, using intention and whatever skills/gifts you each have to contribute. This can result in a huge quantum jump for all of you, as well as for the larger collective. It's just the nature of the quantum scalar field to do so.

OK, we've saved the absolute best for last (well, it's a personal favorite of mine! ☺):

18. Morning Miracle practice (with a Miracle and hand-held coil) – When you commit to doing this practice daily, it will profoundly transform your life, one amazing day at a time... and it will catapult you forward (at least in our individual and collective experiences) at an unprecedented speed...

Personally, I've found it's the best proactive way, along with our first two suggestions, for minimizing both the frequency and duration of those "dark night" experiences. (And, when they do occur, for getting through them within greater ease and grace).

Here's how to begin... Sleep with your Miracle frequencies playing (you can turn the volume down low, or turn the volume off during the night – your Miracle will still be broadcasting the frequencies), and your hand held unit by your bedside (to immerse yourself in those wonderful night-time frequencies, which will continue to rewire your brain, even as you sleep ☺).

Try to develop a habit of waking slowly, while keeping your eyes shut, to stay in that deeply relaxing theta state, even after you become more consciously awake.

Even this slow wake-up offers many benefits – your brain develops a new neural map of you being in the deeply relaxing theta frequencies, including while you're awake. In itself, this is truly wonderful.

This practice also allows you to bring back into your consciousness, more of your dreams.

However, another benefit to this practice is clearing out your stress-stories which may have been present in your dreams too. Clearing them within Theta means clearing them at a deep level – where resistance is much less frequently experienced.

How to do your morning Miracle practice? With your eyes still closed, and waking slowly, reach for your hand held coil.

Keep your eyes closed sinking within relaxation in the theta state.

Now, consciously connect with Miracle's field, and then scan for what and how you're feeling. Open to receive any dream images that come to you. Watch whatever occurs, from neutral observing stance.

Again, this is not about you "doing" anything – you're just receiving information, words, thoughts, images, feelings, and bits of your dream-time... and allowing whatever is there to cycle through into completion.

This sometimes takes as little as 5 or 10 minutes. But once you feel how beautifully it cleans and clears your energy field, you may want to leave more time for it. (Personally, I love taking about an hour – the energy of it is so powerful).

This means we begin our day from within the quantum unified field of One-ness, within the interconnectivity of all life.

Now Just Think For a Moment About the Law of Attraction Imagine the difference in your life, with starting each and every day from within this powerful field of Unity consciousness, within your highest and brightest Light. What might shift, in your life? What might there be more room for?

Vision how this will magnetize more Love and more expanded conscious experiences to you, over each of your days, and how your night-time dreaming will be affected too.

Now take a deep breath. Imagine what you'll be magnetizing into your life, over the course of every day. And over longer time frames - within one month... three months... six... and how about three years.

OK, now we invite you to imagine that, at the same time you're doing your Miracle practice, some of our other Miracle owners are too. And we're all consciously intending the best and highest for ourselves, for all humans everywhere, and for our Earth.

Are you getting a sense of just what becomes possible, when we combine using Miracle, within groups of people all intending the highest and best for all?

Remember, the scalar field of each Miracle is a field of multiple dimensional realities, which spreads out for 50 miles. Plus, all the Harmonies are inter-connected, within the unified field of one of creation energy.

So, when we're all consciously intending together, within that field, it's powerful. The Butterfly Effect becomes consciously intensified by all of us.

Seriously, we're talking here about living within the territory of miracles. (I can personally attest to that – my life has radically shifted and transformed, since I first began my morning practice only a few months ago).

Of course, this practice need not be done only in the morning. You can use it throughout the day, as needed or desired... and/or at bedtime, to clear any accumulation of stress from your day.

Whichever of these tips that you try, or creatively design your own supportive strategies... keep on going forward. Don't give up... you will get through the darker moments in clearing out old stress-patterns in your life... So much more easily than has been possible in the past...

And the release will create so much more space for your expansion into your Light!!

On the Other Side of Your Stress Stories - Some Long Term Benefits Whichever of these tips that you try, or creatively design through your own supportive strategies, keep on going forward. Don't give up... you will get through the darker moments in clearing out old stress-patterns in your life, so much more easily with your Miracle than has been possible in the past. The release of your old stories will create so much more space for your expansion into your Light!!

Know that when you persist in clearing resistance and stepping further and further into your Light, you're actually doing a number of significant things, which will change your life:

1. You'll be building new neural circuitry in your brain – new pathways that aren't associated with old pain and suffering stories... which are associated with joy, emotional equilibrium, and relaxation (and the happiness hormones in your brain).
2. You'll be actively interacting with the scalar field, which is a living field, within which is the “highest and best” for all... and that includes your highest and best. This is truly the territory where the unexpected, serendipity, and miracles come together.
3. As you learn to lean into trusting and deepening your experiences within this “highest and best” scalar field, you'll become more aware, more conscious of what's infinitely possible within this field.

Think of this as traveling to a new country. At first, you only notice the big differences from what you're used to. But after time has passed and you become more comfortable in your new land, you become much more attuned to the subtleties, the nuances of your new home. You notice many more of the details, and your life therefore becomes a much richer, deeper experience.

This is a brand new experience for most of humanity. We've all been stuck for so long, in living within ancient stress patterns of reflexive fight/flight or freeze emotional reactivity. Moving out of this territory, both individually and collectively as a species, to step into more of our potential within the scalar field of unconditional love, of all possibilities – well, it's a big shift. Know that over time, it becomes easier and so much more pleasurable.

Miracle will help get you there more quickly and efficiently. Miracle will additionally support your accommodating to the changes you'll find waiting for you, so much more easily.

Chapter 9 – The Miracle Love Story From Our Miracle Owners - Sharing the Joy of Our Collective Mission... to Raise Personal and Planetary Frequency

As you'll see now, our Miracle owners have a lot to say about how profoundly their experience of life has been transformed, as a result of bringing Miracle into their lives and their home...

This first sharing is fascinating for what it illustrates so clearly. We've had a highly gifted observer verbally describe the field of Miracle as:

“Miracle’s triple nesting seems to create a powerful energy moving straight up and straight down.

Strangely enough, this vertical field isn’t affected by any turning, twisting or tilting of the coil or apparatus. It’s as if this straight up and down is entirely non-physical. And as such, represents the joining of Heaven and Earth, or Sun and Earth, or ultimate consciousness in the Universe and the center of your being.

With the triple nesting, there does seem to be a penetration all the way into sub-atomic levels, before the manifestation of anything concrete or physical. And this field seems to have this capacity to keep reverting back to an agenda-less or pure energy configuration”.

After we'd had this described to us, one of our Miracle owners sent us the following message. Check out the photo, where you can actually see the vertical field, as described above.

“I was outside this weekend to take a picture of our house in the snow, and this is what appeared in the photo. The images have not been altered and the rays of light cannot be seen with the naked eye. Some vortex, huh? The image was taken with my iPhone...Pretty amazing!! Love, love, love.”

Denise, Pennsylvania, USA”

“I have been on a journey of awakening for some time now and find that we all have the ability to tune in to and feel the energetic resonance of anything we focus our awareness on. When I first felt the resonance of the Miracle iQube, I was blown away by how much I resonated with and enjoyed the energy. I felt like I could breathe for the first time, allowing me to stay centred in who and what I truly am. One with everything that is!

With so much bombardment and exposure throughout the day to differing energies and frequencies of electronics, food, people, other technologies, etc. It can create disharmony and imbalance within our bodies.

The Miracle iQube creates a strong, supportive frequency of balance and harmony and we have the ability to attune our body and mind to this energy by letting go of any belief systems and energetic blocks that are not in alignment with it.

Miracle and balance are a part of our natural state of being and when experienced, it creates an unwavering sense of peace within, which so many of us long to feel. We end up spending our lives searching for it in so many ways, most of which can be either harmful to our bodies and minds or are simply limiting us in some way. Ultimately we just want to feel good!

Survival mode, fear and separation has resulted in us living a life of imbalance and struggle, deteriorating our health, our relationships and our connection with our own self. In turn, it leaves us feeling drained and limited, so we search for something we think will make us feel good inside.

We try to achieve this feeling through acquiring material goods and monetary wealth; through defining ourselves in value and status within society; through food; through pharmaceutical drugs; we delve into altered states of consciousness via narcotics and psychedelics, and most often through dependence on others; all of which can be used as tools to assist and serve us in our journey of uncovering who we truly are.

However, we need to make a shift inside to feel true peace. It starts with us, and our choices of letting go and shifting from thinking about everything and allowing our minds to drive our experience to a state of feeling with our hearts, and using our inner guidance.

The Miracle iQube supports the energy that is already inside of us, like a boost and acceleration that gives us the opportunity to most importantly feel, recognize and remember what is already there. But also to embrace it and feel a state of peace, balance, clarity and neutrality, without effort and struggle.

“We all have the power within to make a shift in our lives, and this technology can be an awesome catalyst and support for the shift you are looking to make. Thank you for this creation!”

Much love, Matthew Christodoulou, Canada

“I want to share a bit about my 1st few weeks with Miracle iQube. First off, THANK YOU!

Wow is all I can say. In a lot of ways, it is like a dream come true for me, in my journey of sharing love and connecting with others.

I now believe that I will be able to live in a state of continual “love / oneness” in this lifetime. I feel so much more expansive. My conscious access to sense and feel the past, present and future and the oneness of all is also improving.

When I used to “tune in” I would describe the feeling as I would kinda push the energy from my head outward to connect into my higher consciousness.

Now, it feels like my higher consciousness is closer, easier to connect with, or said another way, easier to bring my higher state energy into me. Like my soul is gaining more direct access to me. I can feel my higher state consciousness almost at will now.

A week after the Miracle iQube came into our lives, I was challenged to my core with a deep realization that it is time for me to let of the old building blocks of my ego.

At first this deep self-realization concerned me but as I surrendered to the experience of letting myself “fall apart” I felt a deep calm.

I was asked to live my life in a state of love / connection / oneness with myself (past present and future) and others in my life. I am not sure what this new definition of self really means but the sense is that this how we humans are intended to live.

It is becoming harder and harder to see the separation between myself and others. I meet people and instantly love them, no boundaries and no barriers. I just feel that they are me and I am them. Wow quite a ride..... Awesome...

Thank you, thank you, thank you...” Love Bill xoxo

“We love the new Miracle. Excellent healing qualities – very fast. It’s like “eh, I can’t say this, but whatever, I am saying it anyway.....” – It’s like all filters vanish.....all is being revealed to become authentic.

We see and experience the TRUE faces of everyone and everything – starting with our neighbors – gosh...didn’t look good. Our one neighbor is more drunk and aggressive now than ever. If “shit” or “fear” or “irritation” is blocking, that’s what comes up to regain balance and harmony. We find this very amusing and are laughing a lot, though it’s a tough realization sometimes.

The 5th house in astrology seem to be awakened in specific with this iQube – sexuality, romance, creativity, playfulness, joy and inner child – inner ONENESS, as we must become ONE with ourselves before we can become ONE with everyone else.

Beside that of course, a more keen and focused mind in peace and HARMONY.”

Lots of love, Savannah, Denmark, Founder of Omahara School of Enlightenment

“I feel like I have a stronger, deeper connection to my soul...

I can feel the strength and the beauty that exists within me and I can feel it for longer periods of time. I used to get glimpses of it... Now I can easily find my connection and hold it for sustained periods of time.

For the first time in my life I meditated for over two hours. With such connection and love...

Sometimes when I go to the silence within me, I feel surrounded by other magnificent beings, energy. I do not feel alone. I can feel myself and the connection to so many things around me... I can feel energy, vibration through my entire being.

To me it feels like the divine essence of love. The real me. I am alive... I am waking up... I am enjoying life... Enjoying the journey.

I have always sought connection to others. I have realized that the connection I sought was truly the connection to myself. That connection has now brought me great peace, love and strength.. A connection to source that I could never have imagined.

Thank you. I have been seeking that connection to myself for so long. And so the journey continues.

Thank you, thank you, thank you..." Love Ann xoxo Ann S, Canada

Appendix I – Getting Your Miracle Up and Running

So, you've received your Miracle. You're likely feeling excited about getting it going, and beginning your journey with it. (I know I was!)

Again, some people are naturally gifted with understanding technology and how it works. Remember if that's you, you might want to either skip this Appendix, or just skim it quickly, for the information specific to Miracle.

For those who aren't as comfortable with technology – this video will provide everything you need to get your Miracle up and running, within your own comfort zone. (Yes, even if you and tech have a "love-hate" relationship, so you think this is impossible or at least unlikely)... It's easy and straightforward, once you get familiar with the basics.

Appendix II – The Quantum Sound Healing Change Checklist

We've found that when we first get Miracle, it's easy to focus on one or two areas where we want to create changes.

However, in most of our lives, Miracle begins to impact on and create shifts in many areas, even when we don't always notice this! Some of these shifts can seem subtle, especially if we're not consciously looking for them.

The items on this checklist are all shifts other Quantum Sound iQube owners have reported as changes they've experienced (though not everyone experiences all of them).

We suggest, if you're curious about how you'll experience change as a result of using Miracle (and listening to your tones), you may want to fill this out before you begin, to get an initial measure. You can come back to this as often as you wish, to check on your progress.

It doesn't take long to fill it out – just allow your intuition to guide you in your responses (in other words, don't think your way through this – just answer with your first intuition).

Feel free to skip any that don't resonate with or apply for you, if you'd prefer.

When using this checklist, scale your responses for each item wherever it resonates for you between 1 and 10, in terms of how frequently or how strongly you experience each item.

1 = never or not at all

10 = all the time or the most powerfully you can imagine someone feeling it

Date:Emotionally:

o sense of increased calm, peace, and serenity, with greater relaxation o feeling less stressed, less anxious o more focused o deepened intuition o improved problem-solving o feeling less depressed o less time spent in negative emotional states – less emotional reactivity (the same stuff can happen, but you stay in calm “zone”) o more frequent moments of pure unbridled joy, and balance

o getting along more easily with loved ones

o reduced confusion o greater mental clarity o improved problem solving o easier and faster to deal with challenging events, without losing as much energy o less need to control others or situations o greater flexibility

Physically:

o having more energy and increased productivity o feeling more balanced, centered and grounded o greater attunement to natural rhythms both in and around you o increased sense of coordination and reflexes o improved digestion o greater ease in making healthy, nutritional choices o weight regulation o eating less o your voice changing (a deepening or more full-bodied timbre) o your singing voice improving o changes in posture as your body releases tension o less pain o greater agility o improved athletic performance – being more in “the Zone”

Spiritually:

o greater sense of connection with higher self o increased sense of your gifts/true life purpose – living in your greater potential o greater self-loving, o deeper self-acceptance o increased sense of deep compassion – for self and others o wanting to take better, more loving care of yourself o deeper connection with your own inner creativity o living more in love, rather than fear

With Pet Companions:

o decrease in anxiety and agitation o increase in calm

With Children:

o more focused attention o greater relaxation o improvements in grades, o improvement in productivity, o improvement in reading, o improved ease in learning o decrease in moodiness/emotional ups and downs o increase in feeling contented, relaxed and happier o improvements in health o improvements in coordination

Appendix III – 3 Other Resources for You

1. The Free Online Tele-Seminar Series Over the past number of years, we've continued to provide free online training about our technology for you, as part of our heart-commitment to sharing these tools widely, and to educate about them, given they're ahead of our times.

Although they may seem similar to other technologies on the planet, they're really not.

We've learned a lot about what they are, and how they transform human consciousness - it's an ongoing learning curve for us too! Because these tools are multi-dimensional, we're always continuing to learn more and more about how this impacts on our daily lives, and our own human evolutionary journey.

Our own journey with these tools has been a very long one. Robert Lloy has spent over 40 years developing them. And I have worked with Robert for over 20 of those years. It's been a long and fruitful journey together with this amazing technology.

However, the journey between 2011 and 2015 in particular, has been an intense one, as we've continued to be guided to create an entire new line of iQubes (of which Miracle is one).

Although all these iQubes share some common features, each also has some unique features.

This then is what we're committed to sharing with you, as we all continue to expand our consciousness together: our evolving understanding of how these tools propel we humans forward and up, easily and quickly, into expanded states of consciousness, out of separation consciousness and back into the interconnected unified field.

These are states of consciousness which historically have taken sages and shamans, mystics and monks many decades of long and concerted daily practice to achieve.

Now, with these tools, these states of greater joy and bliss become available to each of us. It's as easy as plugging in one of our iQubes, letting it run in your home or office 24/7 and 365, retraining your brain, neurologically and physiologically. This profoundly changes your state of consciousness, and thus your perception of life. Change your brain, change your life.

Seems hard to believe? We get that. The journey to really understanding this comes with time, information... and most profoundly, via your own personal experience.

On our multiple tele-seminar series, you'll find what's new, in our discovery process. We share all the latest updates, and have interviews with other experts in the field, as well as with those whose lives are being profoundly transformed, as a result of living with an iQube.

At the end of each tele-seminar, I also offer a guided visualization/meditation, where some of the specific frequencies are played.

This offers you an opportunity to both learn by listening, and by experiencing some of the frequencies.

Given you won't be listening within the coherent scalar energy field of Miracle, your online experience cannot offer you the depth that's offered by the power of listening within an iQube scalar field.

So, to maximize your experience as much as possible (given these limitations), we recommend you use external speakers on your laptop or computer when listening to the frequencies – internal computer/laptop speakers won't give you the full spectrum of frequencies.

Even with the bandwidth limitations, and no scalar energy field around you as you listen, make no mistake: Many in our Tribe have reported that these frequencies, even in an online format, can be powerful and transformative:

Here's what one iQube owner said about having listened to some of our online frequencies:

“If anyone wonders if these online frequencies are powerful... I hope they read this, and really feel just how powerful they are – they totally changed my life...”

After more than 30 years of trying endless different ‘healing tools’, these are the only ones I’ve found that have profoundly shifted my energy, at an unconscious level... in just 2 sessions, online. Wow. (And without me needing to first consciously understand it. Double wow).

I feel so much gratitude for this gift. Beyond measuring, these frequencies (along with my iQube) have been absolutely priceless to my soul’s evolution.”

Debs, ON. Canada

Here's the link to the free tele-seminar series... we hope you enjoy the experience. And, as always, we welcome your feedback!

2. A Short Video: Introducing Our Scalar Architect Now that you've had a chance to read through this handbook of information, the science behind our OM Pocket, and our tips and techniques, here's a short, four-minute video, where our Scalar Architect explains the quantum physics of our scalar wave technology:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Xvhl9pfi1Kg>

We hope all this information supports your clear understanding of how the OM Pocket works, and just how profoundly it can affect your journey into more expansive consciousness... into more of your own unique evolutionary potential.

3. Some More Resources... Our Other e-Books This e-book is about our Theta Love iQube. We also have our portable OM Pocket (intended to travel with you day and night), and some other stationary iQubes which may be of interest to you.

Our stationary iQubes are all plug-and-play quantum scalar devices which, due to their unique sacred geometry, each create larger scalar fields, which can impact on your home, your community and (with our beautiful Tesla iQube) even contribute to creating planetary change.

Appendix IV – Frequently Asked Questions

“I felt a deep sense of peace. Everything in the world is in order.”

Ellen Burkett, Colorado

How Does Miracle Work? Miracle combines scalar vortex Miracoil technology, invented by Robert Lloy in 1980, with:

- proprietary sound frequencies;
- scalar vortex technology;
- inert noble gases;
- LED lights;
- 24 karat gold and pure silver;
- and flower essences...

To create a coherent quantum field which is uplifting. You can play the pre- programmed frequencies, 24/7 and 365 – they’ve all been specifically designed for optimal expanded consciousness, by balancing and releasing old stress.

Here’s another way of explaining this tool of Divine Science: How the scalar energy field in Miracle creates the r/evolutionary recipe for your personal transformation...

Quantum physics has finally understood this. We’re not solid matter. Not made up of particles. Instead, we’re waves of energy, of frequencies, all vibrating and existing together, with all of everything that’s created, within the quantum field known as the unified field.

Within this quantum physics understanding of reality, Miracle (along with all our technology), generates a scalar field, composed of scalar waves.

And the scalar wave spreads out to create a field, which is extremely coherent, organized and unified.

In fact, this is the unified field.

And while this can be easily explained within quantum physics, it’s still challenging for most of us to really understand how profoundly being inside this energy field changes things. Changes you. Changes your reality. Changes life on earth... and everywhere.

What’s clear is this: Change Happens.

Change your brain, change your life.

What’s not as clear is where your harmonizing within this unified field of scalar energy will take you, on your own journey - what it will specifically help you to manifest, within the field of “all possibilities.”

This we can say with some degree of certainty: You may not even be seeing these possibilities for you yet...

Because the possibilities which are currently evident to you, are based on the limitations in your unconscious programming.

This is true for all of us, because this is where we've been stuck in evolutionary terms, both as individuals, and as a species.

Those very limitations are precisely what living inside a scalar field clears out... leaving room for more expansiveness, and greater possibilities. Change just happens.

Once you're living within a scalar field, everything changes in ways you cannot predict now. What you can, however, predict is that these ways will always be in harmony with your highest evolution, within your divine potential... on your soul's unique journey.

As long as you continue to live within the scalar field created by one of our stationary iQubes (such as Miracle), or a portable OM Pocket, you will change. It's all in the science of scalar energy, the laws of resonance, and the frequency following effect.

So, if you're feeling finished with old stress and human suffering patterns in your life, if you're ready to ramp up your own evolution and expand your consciousness... to become a conscious co-creator within these deeply transformational times on planet Earth, it's both quite simple and straightforward.

The easiest, most efficient way to do this is threefold:

1. Live 24/7 and 365 within the coherence of the scalar field created by Miracle and listen to Miracle's pre-programmed frequencies.
2. Do your voice assessment sessions regularly, and listen to your balancing frequencies daily, to retrain your brain away from stress and into bliss.
3. Drink structured water, preferably imprinted with your voice's own balancing frequencies, to hydrate and heal on a cellular level.

This is the recipe which ensures your own growth and development, and puts you squarely back on your soul's evolutionary journey. It's all in the quantum physics and the math.

It really is as simple as that.

What's the Significance of the Human Voice?

Each voice is a unique blend of frequencies. In fact there are no two voices on the planet which are exactly the same.

Plus, our human voice is more individualized than our human fingerprint, because the voice changes over time, depending on our stress level.

As such, it's an excellent gateway to assess the human energy field. Not only does your voice precisely reflect the stresses and anxieties from your past and present circumstances, it reflects the exact energy blocks that may be sabotaging you.

By assessing these blockages or stresses correctly, we're able to develop a set of frequencies which pinpoint and releases those specific stresses. The resultant balancing tones then are like a tuning fork: they release pent up blockages, memories and patterns of self sabotage.

In essence, we assess these blocks, and create the specific frequencies which vibrate them away!

How Does a Quantum Sound Session Work?

You take a brief 10 to 15 second sample of your voice.

Using proprietary algorithms, an individualized set of frequencies is created to pinpoint and release stress that is being held in your subtle energy field. The accuracy of this assessment involves over 1 1/2 billion bits of information from your voice.

The set of frequencies that is developed releases stress at the "quantum" level, when played through our Scalar Vortex Miracoil Technologies or iQubes (like Miracle).

These quantum tones are like your personal symphony. They create the space for harmony at the deepest levels of your being - initiating the release of stored emotional stress, hidden fears, sadness and anxiety.

The personal freedom brought about by releasing your stress at the quantum level gives rise to heightened awareness, increased intuition, more expansive creativity, and a deeper alignment with your life purpose.

What About Really Old Stressful Memories That I Don't Even Remember Any More?

Yes, Miracle clears unconscious memories too. You sometimes still will remember your old emotional reactivity, but no longer feel it.

Sometimes you won't even remember what you were upset/reactive about. (At least, this is what other Miracle owners have shared with us).

What Are the Underlying Principles at Work in the Miracle?

There are seven key principles to understanding this technology, and what it offers us in reducing our stress, and stepping into greater balance and harmony.

1. Re-training Consciousness – Re-training consciousness happens in the brain. It's been defined as "a synchronization of two or more rhythmic cycles".

It was first discovered in 1665, by Dutch scientist Christian Huygens, when he filled a room full of pendulum clocks and started them all. They each tick-tocked in their own timing. However, when he returned to the room the next day, he discovered that their pendulums had all synchronized to the same timing. With our technology, this same principle happens.

When your brain is introduced to the different brainwave patterns, which reflect different states of consciousness (such as feeling wide awake and very focused, or very relaxed, or deeply asleep and dreaming), your brain gets re-trained to this pattern – just as in the children’s game of “follow the leader”.

2. Law of Intent – It’s been said “Intent is everything”. Intent births new possibilities.

As a species, we’re only at the beginning of really understanding how powerful this truly can be. Intent is a major game changer, both subtle and transformative in its impact.

Using your conscious intent when interacting with Miracle will magnify the effects which you experience.

3. Frequency Following Effect – has been defined as “an evoked response generated by continuous presentation of low-frequency tone stimuli”.

With our technology, when we listen to the relaxing and deepening frequencies in the technology, our brain follows along, becoming re-trained to them.

This creates new growth in our brains, developing new neural pathways, resulting in dumping stress, and experiencing greater relaxation and balance.

4. Law of Resonance – This law is demonstrated when you have two tuning forks in the same room, but far apart. When you strike one and it begins to vibrate, the other tuning fork across the room will also start to vibrate: they are in resonance with each other, part of the same “field”. There is an affinity between them.

This is evident in human interactions as well. When you meet a new person, with some you can experience a resonance, a sense of immediate comfort – you ‘resonate’ together. With others, you can experience the opposite – a sense of dissonance, discomfort or lack of resonance.

This law is also evident within our brain functioning: “Resonance occurs when two or more interconnected objects share the same vibrational frequency. When one of the objects is vibrating, it forces the second object into vibrational motion”.

The question is, what do you want to resonate with – stress or well-being? (No- brainer, right?)

5. Law of Repetition – When we’re learning something new, the more we repeat something, the more automatic it then becomes. Neurologically, in our brains this is reflected by: “what fires together, wires together”. And, as you begin to detach your stress stories from your old patterns of emotional reactivity, the neurological rule shifts into “what fires apart, wires apart”.

When you repeatedly listen to your tones, and experience relief from stress, and greater well-being... you are literally building new neural pathways of greater well- being, which eventually become self-sustaining.

6. The Ripple Effect in the Quantum Field – The ripple effect, which has been described as “the heartbeat to eternity” evolved out of an understanding in quantum physics, that we are all interconnected in the great tapestry of Life.

In quantum physics, the search for the smallest “bits” of matter eventually resulted in the understanding that there are no finite “components” of matter... there is only energy. And this energy includes our thoughts and feelings (as illustrated in both “The Secret and “What the Bleep Do We Know” movies).

So, each of our “individual” thoughts, feelings, and actions is like a pebble dropped into a quantum pond, where ripples are created. These ripples move outward in ever bigger circles, affecting all else in the quantum “pond”.

Now, just imagine two (or many) pebbles dropped into that same quantum pond - and the ripples from each, all interacting together in complex patterns. If all those pebbles share the same energy or intent, just imagine how powerfully those pebbles all work together, affecting what we know as “reality”. The Ripple Effect works to magnify the actions we each create in the world, and with our combined efforts!

7. Practice of Extreme Neuroplasticity – Neuroplasticity refers to the capacity of the brain, of the human being to keep on growing.

It’s been said that we humans use only 10 – 15% of our brains. The other 85 – 90% is our potential, the space available to us to continue growing.

Until these quantum sound tools were developed, learning how to easily access neuroplasticity, to use it with intent to continue to develop our brains and our experience of life and living has been a matter of happenstance (or 40 years of meditation practice in Tibet or India!).

These powerful quantum sound tools readily offer us the opportunity to consciously use this potential neuroplasticity, within all the other laws, to grow more quickly and to awaken more easily, into expanded states of consciousness, into living within greater joy, deeper relaxation, focus and creativity - into becoming more conscious of our human potential, of our unique life purpose.

All we need to do is plug Miracle in, and listen. Just listen. Change your brain... Change your life.
